To,

The Deputy Commr.

Bangalore Dist.

Sir, I am directed to invite your reference to Govt. Pro: No 1840 dated 26th December 1903, regarding the affairs of the Basavanna temple in the Basavangudi Extension, Bangalore, and to observe that although nearly 22 months have elapsed since, the orders of Govt. contained in the Proceedings referred to above, do not appear to have been carried out as yet. This is very much to be regretted.

Enclosure No.

Order:— 26-12-03

On the morning of Saturday the 12th instant, the temple of Basavanna in the Basavanagudi extension was inspected by the D. Secy. to Govt. in the Muzrai Deptt. The compound wall of the temple has no coping and in some places the naked stone-in-mud walls are falling off. The walls of the main temple are also in some places a little out of the perpendicular and required early renovation. The flooring of the mantaps in the compound of the temple requires to be slabbed. To prevent further deterioration, sundry repairs as above are urgently required. The Dy Commr is requested to get regular Estimates of such repairs prepared & submit them early.

2. The temple is stated to have some funds at its credit & that about Rs 4000 or so belonging to it are now with the Managers Thotadappa & Yejamman Veerbhadra Setty. The Dy Commr is requested to use his good offices to recover the amount from them in view to enable Govt to sanction the repairs which are urgently ~~cotton~~ needed. & to get the repairs done by those gentlemen after obtaining Govt sanction to the Estimate.

On the south west

Corner of the roof of the temple, a peepal tree has grown and undoubtedly its roots have gone deep into the crevices in the walls of the temple. The Dy Commr is requested to issue early orders to remove the tree and root it out ~~as far~~ in an efficient manner to as ~~as practicable~~ to prevent its damaging the old temple building.

4. The Dy Commr is requested to report the result of the action taken by him in the matter at an early date.

Yours obedt
